“What material food produces in our bodily life, Holy Communion wonderfully achieves in our spiritual life....It preserves, increases and renews the life of grace received at baptism” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 1392).

Jesus The Bread of Life Invites Us to Eat And Be Strengthened!

The Church has been inviting us for couple of Sundays to reflect on the Eucharist- the Center and Summit of the life of the Church, the root and foundation of Christian life, and the food for eternal life. In each of the readings of these Sundays, there has been connection of the physical food which God gave to his people in Old Testament with the spiritual food in the New Testament (NT). The gift in NT is the gift of God himself through the person of his Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who invites us to celebrate the Eucharist always in his memory and to eat and drink his body and blood for our sanctification and salvation.

In the first reading today, God sent an angel to give Elijah food to strengthen him to walk for 40 days and 40 nights. Elijah was in state of desperation following the events of Mt. Carmel (I kings 18). He saw his life as being hopeless, helpless, and desired to die. The food given to him strengthened him to accomplish his mission. In the Gospel, Jesus tells us that he is the bread of life that comes from heaven for the life of the world. This bread is the spiritual food that gives spiritual strength that leads to everlasting life unlike the food given in the Old Testament which gave only a temporal life. The bread of life is an eternal food because it gives life to the soul which is immortal and indestructible.

This bread of life will become our spiritual food if we partake in it with right dispositions and allow its enduring effects to influence us. St. Paul points out clearly in the second readings some of the human tendencies that can make this eternal food fruitless and ineffectual. These are bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, reviling, malice etc. The bread of life must make us to imitate the person we receive by being kind, compassionate, and forgiving. We pray that the body and blood of Christ we share will give us the spiritual strength to live in communion with him now and forever. Amen.

“Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word and I shall be healed” (Matthew 8:8, Luke 7:6-7).

Mass Intentions: The People of God and for those received into the Church today in Baptism.

Other Intentions:

- The family of Aidan Ogamba requests prayers in loving memory of Rev. Fr. Balahart C. Ogamba who passed away on August 12, 1985.
- Praying to God to pour out His abundance of blessings upon the life of Destiny Nmachi Nkwocha. That on this day of her baptism/christening, God will always keep her in the shelter of His care. Amen.
- Goddy and Angela Ikeme are thanking God for successful anniversary and thanksgiving celebration, for leading all guests home safely, and praying for God's protection and guidance on our children Jesse, Chima and Casey, as they enter new phases in their lives.

Gloria:

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth. Lord God, heavenly King, Almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING: 1 King 19:4-8

A Reading from the First book of Kings (1 Kgs 19:4-8)

Elijah went a day's journey into the desert, until he came to a broom tree and sat beneath it. He prayed for death saying: "This is enough, O LORD! Take my life, for I am no better than my fathers." He lay down and fell asleep under the broom tree, but then an angel touched him and ordered him to get up and eat. Elijah looked and there at his head was a hearth cake and a jug of water. After he ate and drank, he lay down again, but the angel of the LORD came back a second time, touched him, and ordered, "Get up and eat, else the journey will be too long for you!" He got up, ate, and drank; then strengthened by that food, he walked forty days and forty nights to the mountain of God, Horeb.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

1. I will bless the LORD at all times; his praise shall be ever in my mouth. Let my soul glory in the LORD; the lowly will hear me and be glad. R.

2. Glorify the LORD with me, Let us together extol his name. I sought the LORD, and he answered me. And delivered me from all my fears. R.

3. Look to him that you may be radiant with joy. And your faces may not blush with shame. When the afflicted man called out, the LORD heard, And from all his distress he saved him. R.

4. The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him and delivers them. Taste and see how good the LORD is; blessed the man who takes refuge in him. R.

SECOND READING: Ephesians 4:30 -5:2

A reading from the Second Letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians:

Brothers and sisters: Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were sealed for the day of redemption. All bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, and reviling must be removed from you, along with all malice. And be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving one another as God has forgiven you in Christ. So be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and handed himself over for us as a sacrificial offering to God for a fragrant aroma.

GO S P E L: Jon 6:41-51

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Jon:

The Jews murmured about Jesus because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven, "and they said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph? Do we not know his father and mother? Then how can he say, 'I have come down from heaven'?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Stop murmuring among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draw him, and I will raise him on the last day. It is written in the prophets: They shall all be taught by God. Everyone who listens to my Father and learns from him comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died; this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

I believe in one God

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; Through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen
