Riches: Blessing or Curse?

The Eucharistic celebration- the highest form of prayer, is a special moment in which God speaks to us through different ways, namely; the songs, the prayers and the readings. The word of God, we experience through these means are meant to encourage the good we do and challenge us to make effort to overcome the weaknesses of our lives. This cannot happen if we do not have the right disposition that comes from active and full participation in the liturgy. It is this worthwhile disposition to the word of God that makes it "living and effective" as our second reading points out clearly.

The personification of wisdom in the first reading flows from the background of the book which is believed to be the brainchild of King Solomon. The early part of his kingship shows how he made the choice of wisdom over riches (I Kg 3: 5-14). It is the same reflection on riches and wisdom that connects us to Jesus' seemingly impossible analogy in Mark's gospel today; "it is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom." In the context of this gospel, one may be tempted to conclude that Jesus detests riches and sees it as a curse than a blessing. Is this true? No! Rather, Jesus wants to bring to our awareness the destructive dangers of riches which do not in any way undermine the blessings they bring.

Jesus wants us to reflect on two things about riches: How we acquire them, and how we use them. These two things determine if riches become a blessing or curse to us. We have to ask ourselves: What we have either small or big, how did we acquire them; were they acquired justly or through crook or hook? (1Timothy 6: 6-10). How do we use the riches we have acquired? Do our riches make us arrogant and proud? (1 Corinthian 4: 7). Are we unduly attached to riches (as the young man in the gospel) that we evaluate our lives by what we have than who we are? Are we wasteful and extravagant or stingy and mean with our riches? Do we remember that the more riches we have, the more opportunities we have to win God's blessings with them? (Luke 16: 19-31). We pray that the good Lord will give us the wisdom to acquire and use properly the riches he has given us so that they become for us sources of blessing and not curse. Amen.

"For all their riches, if mortals do not have wisdom, they perish like the beasts" (Psalm 49: 21).

"If the Lord has gifted you with riches, it is in order to do lots of good things for others in His name" (Pope Francis Tweets, August 28, 2018)

FIRST READING: Wisdom 7:7-11
A Reading from the First book of Wisdom
I PRAYED, and prudence was given me; I pleaded, and the spirit of wisdom came to me. I preferred her to scepter and throne, and deemed riches nothing in com-parison with her, nor did I liken any priceless gem to her; because all gold, in view of her, is a little sand, and before her, silver is to be accounted mire. Beyond health and comeliness I loved her, and I chose to have her rather than the light, because the splendor of her never yields to sleep. Yet all good things together came to me in her company, and countless riches at her hands.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:Ps.90:12-13,14-15,16-17
R. Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!
1. Teach us to number our days aright, that we may gain wisdom of heart. Return, O LORD! How long? Have pity on your servants! —R.
2. Fill us at daybreak with your kindness, that we may shout for joy and gladness all our days. Make us glad, for the days when you afflicted us, for the years when we saw evil. —R.
3. Let your work be seen by your servants and your glory by their children; and may the gracious care of the Lord our God be ours; prosper the work of our hands for us! Prosper the work of our hands! —R.

A reading from the Second Letter to the Hebrews
BROTHERS and sisters: Indeed the word of God is living and effective, sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating even between soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and able to discern reflections and thoughts of the heart. No creature is concealed from him, but everything is naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must render an account.

GO S P E L: Mark 10: 17-30 or 10:17-27
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark:
AS Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt down before him, and asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"
Jesus answered him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone.
You know the commandments: You shall not kill; you shall not commit adultery; you shall not steal; you shall not bear false witness; you shall not defraud; honor your father and your mother." He replied and said to him, "Teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth." Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him, "You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." At that statement his face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions. Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" The disciples were amazed at his words. So Jesus again said to them in reply, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God." Peter began to say to him, "We have given up everything and fol-lowed you." Jesus said, "Amen, I say to you, there is no one who has given up house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands for my sake and for the sake of the gospel who will not receive a hundred times more now in this present age: houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and eternal life in the age to come."

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.
